The Oracle

A decorative flourish for the letter 'e' at the end of the title. It features a stylized, dark, leafy branch or vine that curves upwards and to the right, set against a circular background with horizontal lines.

Dedication

We, the Senior Class of 1951, do hereby dedicate this volume of "The Oriole" to those who have made our education possible, whose patience, guidance, and understanding have made our lives worthwhile, whose inspirations have guided us, and whose wishes concerning us we sincerely hope to fulfill. As a token of our love and appreciation we dedicate this volume to Our Parents.

Class History

In the year of 1946, the good ship, "H. S. Education," started its voyage across the sea of Rasman High.

In the eighth grade there were 68 passengers, the co-skippers being Mrs. LaVerne Haged and Miss Edna Wiggins, and the captain was Principal E. F. Tilsan.

After passing the first stormy year of the voyage, we sailed into the Calms of the ninth grade. Six of our passengers left us during this lap of our voyage.

On the next lap, we almost ship-wrecked on the "Rocks of Biology," but we survived with only five classes, thanks to the wise counsel of our officers.

The third lap of our journey was a very interesting one. There was the Junior play, "Lena Rivers," and the Junior-Senior Banquet with the Chinese motif. Five members embarked on the happy Isle of Matrimony. They were LaVada Kilpatrick, Geneva Hudson, Jeanette Raines, Mary Sue Canner and Ja Pangle. A new member from the "H. S. Oceana," joined us, only to leave us the next year. Her name was Ann Vakas.

Our last and most adventurous year of the voyage brought us much happiness. There was the thrill of being seniors, getting our rings, annual work, Senior play, "No Place Like Home," Junior-Senior Banquet, Baccalaureate Service, and at last on May 24, 1951, we anchored our fair ship in the Port of Graduation with 33 members in our crew.

Class Prophecy

Step right up, dear classmates of '51, and let Madam Tell-All read your future in the tea leaves. I have been blessed with the wonderful gift of seeing into the future, and though I am only an amateur, I am learning fast. Who will be first to find out what he will be doing ten years hence in 1961?

Ah! My first customer this evening is Ray Byers. What is that I see in my tea leaves? Why, of course, it is Ray as a missionary in darkest Africa. He seems to be very happy among the savages; in fact, he seems to be one of them.

Here comes Amalia Winchester. I see a huge department store in New York, and Amalia is head floorwalker. She is very successful in her career. She is not married and is still a favorite among all the men.

George White has finally been named King George I of Ooglamitchi, an island in the South Pacific, where he took his bride, the former Beatrice McCall, on their honeymoon and decided to stay.

I see two of my former classmates as teachers of Rosman High School. They are Dorris Reid, who teaches business, and Jency McCall, who teaches mathematics. Marlene Whitmire is teaching at Rosman Elementary.

Marjorie McCall has got herself a Broome, and is keeping house in Greenville S. C. and has four little mops.

My tea leaves reveal that Helen Jo Manley and Brisco McCall are happily married and live in a house adjoining the home of the former Ruth Jamerson, and her husband, Willie Aiken.

Charles Ray Lusk is basketball coach at Rosman High, and is very proud of his team which hasn't lost a game in three years. This year "Muscles" led his team to a State Championship.

Another image is forming. It looks like a wedding! Yes, it is! It seems that Leona Carter is finally getting married to Lester Stamey. Good luck, Leona.

There is a lovely bungalow in my magic tea leaves, and there is Mary Sue Whitmire hanging out the wash, with two darling little boys playing near. What a happy scene. Jo Powell is still making Ernest a wonderful wife. They are living in California near Ima Lee McCall, who is private secretary to Sam Goldwyn in Hollywood.

The next scene is an opossum farm. Guy Owen and Elmo Crowe own this farm, and they are making quite a fortune from the project. They got the idea for the farm during an economics class in R.H.S.

It seems that Lola Dobson has become a lady detective and has just ferreted out a Communist spy. Her assistant and constant companion is Pauline Lowe. They are famous as tracers of Lost Persons.

Mary Lou Moore is married to Billy and lives at the corner of 1st and 10th streets in Rosman. (It really has grown in ten years.)

Well! Alton Pangle is really going places! I see him drilling a group of marines. He is now a captain.

Charles Pangle and Carlyle McCall have an airfield out in the outskirts of Rosman. They are great stunt pilots, but then they always did know lots of tricks.

Ernest Hallar and R. C. Galloway have just opened their new night club, "The Silver Star," across the street from R.H.S. Willie Fisher and Dorothy Thomas are the star singers. Dorothy has become famous as a "blues crooner." Willie is still a heartbreaker, and has a different guy every night.

Bill Case and his wife, the former Freda Jean Boley, live in the suburbs of Rosman. Bill is owner of Case's Department stores, which are scattered all over the U.S. Freda is a great club worker, and is usually head of all the benefit programs.

I see Leo Aiken as World's Lightweight Champion in boxing. Howard Jones is his Manager.

Donalee Cassell has replaced Bob Hope in the movies, and he is a comedian such as the world has never seen heretofore.

Berdell Jones, (who is now Mrs. Dealous Phillips) lives in her lovely home in Wolf Mountain. She is noted for her wonderful cooking and genuine hospitality.

As for myself, Joretta Moore, I am hostess for Pan American Airlines, and telling fortunes to all the Air Force.

The evening has been a pleasant one, dear friends, and I have told your fortunes as I see them in my magic tea leaves.

CLASS PROPHET
JORETTA MOORE

Class Will

We, the Class of '51, being glad that our days here are numbered and realizing the need of retaining our notable talents and abilities, but knowing that the Juniors are sadly lacking in such outstanding qualities have agreed upon these individual bequests.

I, Ray Byars, do hereby will to Alice Owen my musical talent with my wish that she become a great songster.

I, Freda Jean Boley, will my talent of leading cheers to Betty Jean Mitchell. I feel quite sure she will be able to carry out the job well.

I, Bill Case, leave my athletic ability to Carl Masters. May he be a real help to the team next year.

We, Jo Pawell and Ima Lee McCall, will to Wilma Ledford our skill in passing the "invisible note." With the practice she already has we feel sure she'll get by.

I, Leana Carter, will to Vera McCall my job as "office girl." May your job be light and your trips short.

I, Danalee Cassell, leave to Lewis Halden my ability to sing and to hold my audience in great suspense.

I, Lala Dadsan, do hereby bequeath my place as "Lunch Room Waitress" to Peggy Lee. May this be her motto "Let nothing your appetite dismay."

I, Willie Fisher, bequeath to LaVerne Robinson my ability to cook. I have an idea she'll need it in the near future.

We, R. C. Gallaway and Ernest Hallar, leave to Buddy Case our special talent of finding excuses to keep us from school.

I, Altan Pangle, do hereby will my unusual ability of saying much in a few words to Elma Matthews. By cutting ten words a minute from his speech I feel sure he will be able to fulfill the task.

We, Ruth Jamerson and Helen Ja Manley, will to Inola Kilpatrick our talent of being absent when a test is scheduled in Chemistry. A tip, Inala — watch your step.

I, Charles Ray Lusk, leave to Carlyle Whitmire my ability to "make 'em laugh." May he always be able to keep the students in a merry mood.

We, George White and Elma Crowe, leave to A. M. McCall our shyness and blushing in the presence of girls. Use these qualities in moderation.

We, Lea Aiken and Howard Jones, do hereby will to Boyce Whitmire our great name of "carn producers." We hope it will bring him much fame.

We, Jency McCall and Dorris Reid, leave to Darene Gallaway our skill of keeping correctly the student stare. May you have more success than we have had.

I, Marlene Whitmire, leave to Bannie Lee Gallaway my shiny blue apron. I hope she will find it useful in many ways.

I, Pauline Lowe, will to Mildred O'Shields my perfect record of one year with no absences. Tardies are better for the record.

We, Carlyle McCall and Charles Pangle, bequeath to Joe Statan our knowledge of the laboratory. We feel sure he'll make a go of it if he memorizes the chemistry book.

I, Mary Lou Pressley, leave to William Rogers my talent as a typist, but there's one drawback — you'll probably have to use two hands.

I, Guy Owen, leave my title of "class pest" to Carl Phillips. May it bring him as much pleasure as it has me but just half the trouble.

I, Amalia Winchester, leave to Avarie Pawell one ounce of giggles. This will be all she'll need to put the class in an uproar.

We, Mary Sue Whitmire and Marjorie Broome, leave to Willow Mae McCall the address in the adjoining state where we found our new names. Just remember, you mustn't lose the address.

I, Dorothy Thomas, leave to Gerene Galloway my position as president of student council. Always try to give the kids a fair deal.

I, Beatrice McCall, do hereby will to Jae McCall my locker used in the twelfth grade. It's in excellent shape, so please keep it that way.

I, Jaretta Maare, bequeath to Mildred Chapman my ability to write poetry. May she be the greatest poetess Rosman High has known.

I, Gerald Moore, will to Howard McCall my art talent. May it be of much value to him in future years.

I, Berdell Phillips, leave to Opal McCall one pair of overalls since I probably won't need them next year anyway.

This was published and declared before us by the testators to be their last will and testament and at whose request and in whose presence we hereby have subscribed our names as advisors and witnesses.

Humor Page

In every high school year, which incidentally is composed of 180 days containing six hours each, there is, of course, something which happens to everyone that no one can forget. Some of these things we now file below, that you may share the remembrance with us.

At first—well, it really began then, was the unforgettable time when Willie, Joretto, Nadine, Genevo, Patricia and Inolo were on their way to Brevard, and luckily (or unluckily) Inolo "thumbed" Mr. Tilson. Anyway, the trip was made shorter; they returned to school.

Then came the outrageous time when two of our girls became "tomboys" namely, Helen Jo and Ruth. Remember when they walked the home ec tables?

More recently come the Senior boys' "stog" party, which was so rudely interrupted by some of the more interested senior girls. Don't feel bad, boys; they were just checking up.

And then when we were just "freshmen" seniors, Guy, E'mo, and Charles Roy hid all those English books. Remember it, kids?

Then, in November of '49, after one month of daily drilling, come the night for our Junior play rehearsal. Good ole "Lena Rivers". Could anyone forget?

Wonder if Miss Wiggins recalls the surprise birthday party given her by the Juniors of '49? Honk, Honk! Toot, Toot! Could she forget?

Can someone remember the time when all our married seniors were single—

When Jo doted Joe Owen
When Mory Sue doted Hugh Gillespie
When Marjorie dated Charles Harris
When Mory Lou dated Bill Cose
When Ernest doted Imo Lee McColl
When Berdell doted Harold Miller
When Lovodo doted J. C. Anders?

Gone but not forgotten are the parties at Frozen Lake. They were heaps of fun, but punishment for "cutting" school wasn't so funny.

In the field of sports, mostly football, there was one special hero. However, he never came by for his honors when the football took a side curve straight through the Detention Hall window. Now just who was the kicker?

To Grody, Mock, and Joel we give the credit of a completely new stock of food in the lunchroom. Do you recollect, boys?

Seems as if "jeep" days have come and gone again. Perhaps Vero, Opol, Peggy, Alice and Dorene could give us a better line up. Could "Spook" Nicholson and his runaway jeep have any connections?

Better late than never come the steak supper at Miss Wiggins' house for Corlyle, Imo Lee, Charles, and Willow Mae. A lot of steak can be eaten at 10:00 P. M., but there was still some left.

Then through the halls on that joyful day come the music from the English class. The entertainers: Odell Powell and his "harp" and Frantz and his "voice". What were you hoping to chorm, boys—the teacher?

It seems that publicity just comes to certain people. The one we have in mind now is Corlyle Whitmire and his experience with an officer of the law. Believe us, Corlyle, we aren't really jealous of your publicity which pertained to a boy being "searched" because of his foolishness.

And does anyone remember when Mrs. Warren's green light turned red? Maybe we should have the lights changed pink and blue. At least, everyone wouldn't be seeing red all the time.

Free, yet paid for, was the period given to the girls who decided to bring back the silver for Mrs. Bryson. Inolo, Vero, Alice, Wilma, Borboro G., Mildred O. and Martho Jean, was it worth it?

Actions speak louder than words, and it still applies, even in the Marine Air Corps. If it weren't that, then how did the officer find out Corlyle's and Lewis' ages?

Date: Night of Junior play, 1950.

Incident I: Inolo practicing driving "on" Roy Fisher's car.

Incident II: Within one foot of above mentioned accident, Carl Mosler's tire went flat.

Causes: Corelessness, slightly over-loaded car, persons 10.

Help: "Spore" — Mr. Dwyer.

Only once a year, so we mustn't forget Miss Moore's birthday party from 9th grade girls. Yes, Mr. Tilson remembered too, and gave her a special invitation — to chapel.

Then as now, nothing ever stopped the 9th grade of '51. Remember the party of the Pink Beds and "the big rock in the road"?

Plenty of food for everyone, including the enormous appetites of the senior boys of '50. What were you planning to do boys, feed Asheville too?

With heavy hearts and low spirits the 12th grade boys left to the 10th grade boys the '50 basketball tournament championship. Could it have been these nicknames of the 10th grade that brought about the victory?

Please take note of what follows:

"Hoot Owl"—Grody	"Hipockets"—Eugene
"Bad Boy Baker"—Royce	"Blue Beard"—Keneth
"Blood Burton"—Mock	"Muscles"—Charles
"Counterfeit Cosh"—Paul	"Cherry"—Harold
"Hick Hollar"—Freddie
"Lover Boy"—Joel
"Coctus Killer"—Dolus
"Slinging Slim"—Denton
"Herbie, Jr."—Buddy
"Bad Eye"—Sherrill
"Napoleon"—Leo

"Together we stand," the motto of the 12th grade, especially when a certain incident occurs and Helen Jo is caught "forging" names. But everyone knows that's an illegal practice.

"Variety is the spice of life," and these "spicy" moments will be long remembered by all of us.

Alma Mater

Chorus:

Rosman, Rosman, our dear high school,
Orange and the Black,
May we always honor thee,
Alma Mater dear.

High school days are swiftly gliding,
Soon we'll leave these halls,
Friend from friend will then be parting
Answering duty's calls.

Tho' we all may wander far,
To her we'll be true,
We will ever live to love her,
Faithful friends we'll prove.

Activities

The Annual Staff has worked hard and faithfully to secure photographs, snapshots, and group pictures for this book, but one of its most difficult tasks was to raise funds for expenses. In order to do this, the staff and other senior class members have sold Christmas cards, magazine subscriptions, annual subscriptions, sponsored a Pie Supper, and solicited advertisements. We wish to thank our subscribers, advertisers, parents, and Mrs. Lawrence for helping us to raise these funds.

Dear Mrs. Warren,

I really have enjoyed being in your Chemistry class this year as well as the other years. You are one of the nicest and sweetest teachers I have ever know. I'll always remember you as a friend as well as the teacher. I have enjoyed or rather did enjoy working on the banquet of '50 with you. You have been a great influence in my life, proving that a teacher can be a real person too. I have also enjoyed being in your Beta Club these past 3 years. You have a nice personality and I'm sure you have a host of friends.

Doris Reid

Mrs. Warren,

I can not express, in words, how much
I have enjoyed being in the classes you taught. I'll never forget our trip to the Biltmore Estate, and all the fun we had. I have really enjoyed being in the Beta Club, under your direction.
I'll never forget all the things you have done for me as a teacher and a friend.

Mrs. Warren,
you're a swell
teacher and friend.
I certainly have enjoyed being in your classes.

Mrs. Warren

I have enjoyed having you as a teacher and I'm sure I will profit from your helpful information. I wish you the best of everything from life.

Bob Thomas

Mrs. Warren,

I have enjoyed being one of your students and I am sure the help that you gave me will help me along as I take my course in life. May the very best be yours in life. Love
Maureen

Dear Mrs. Warren:

I am going to tell you the truth, how I feel about you. I think you are one of the very best teachers I have ever met, and you are what I call a good sport. We can tell you jokes, or just shoot the bull and you will do the same to us and that is what I like, I hate a stuck-up woman. I have enjoyed being one of your students and looking at you ever day has made me learn to like you very much. I hope that you can get the best of life from here on out, even though you are grown up, and I hope you will always remember me as an over-looker of yours. May you have the best of luck in the world. I love you now and
"good teacher"
